1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

In the Specification,

between lines 1 and 2, inserted

--Field Of The Invention--,

between lines 3 and 4, inserted

--Background Of The Invention--,

between lines 13 and 14, inserted

--Summary Of The Invention--,

Page 3,

between lines 20 and 21, inserted

--Brief Description Of The Drawings--,

Page 4,

between lines 6 and 7, inserted

--Detailed Description Of The Invention--.

In claim 25,

line 1, changed “means” to ~~–strip–~~,

line 2, changed “plate” to ~~–mounting plate–~~.

In claim 37,

line 1, changed “claim 36” to ~~–claim 24–~~.

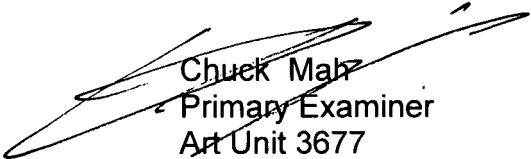

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Prior art of record fails to show the restricting device having the combination as claimed, including a support plate aperture having a feature for prevent the a key head protrusion to turn beyond a predetermined angle. Gledhill '899 neither shows a support plate nor an aperture with a feature for preventing a tool or a key from turning beyond any predetermined angle. '899 has a slot 65 formed in the mounting plate to allow a screwdriver to pull, not rotate, the clip in a longitudinal direction. There is no viable reason to add a support plate and an aperture with a feature for preventing the tool or a key from turning. Further, although FR '845 shows an aperture 18' in a support plate 8 to mainly provide a bearing surface for the plugs 20, there is still no practical reason to form a feature in the aperture to prevent any tool from rotating. Forming a stop in the aperture would render the key or tool inoperable.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
